Workplace Relations, Employment & Safety

Anthony Barbaro,
Special Counsel

Anthony has been practising law since 2007. He has a broad general background focussing in personal injury law and experience in managing litigious matters in the Magistrates Court and District Court. Predominately, Anthony has practised as a solicitor providing advice to ReturntoWorkSA regarding the management of the State's statutory workers' compensation scheme. He has significant experience interpreting statutory legislation and advising about scheme critical matters. Anthony is an experienced advocate in the now South Australian Employment Tribunal. His exposure to this area of law has influenced a strong interest in employment and industrial law.

Anthony joined Bradbrook Lawyers in January 2017 and brings to the firm his vast knowledge and experience in workers' compensation claims and general advocacy. He has a reputation for providing calm, considered and strategically focussed advice.
